

ONE OF THE MANY WAYS THAT LUISA GIVES THE GREATEST LOVE TO JESUS

IS TO USE HER PAINS TO MITIGATE JESUS' PAINS

Jesus says below in VOL. 29 – April 4, 1931 that one of the many ways that Luisa gives the greatest love to Jesus is to use her pains to mitigate Jesus' pains. The definition of mitigate is (to cause to become less harsh or hostile : mollify.)

Below in VOL. 36 - September 27, 1938 is a Prayer of Luisa to unite her pains with Jesus' pains.

Below in THE VIRGIN MARY IN THE KINGDOM OF THE DIVINE WILL : DAY 24 is a Prayer of Luisa to unite her pains with Our Lady's pains

VOL. 29 – April 4, 1931

My abandonment in the arms of the Most Holy Supreme Will continues; and even though I feel myself under the thick clouds of inexpressible bitternesses, which take away from me the beauty of the divine light, and if I feel it, it is behind these clouds – yet, as I say my 'I love You' and do my acts in the Fiat, the thunder is formed; and unleashing the lightning, it rips the clouds open, and through those rips the refulgent light enters into my soul and brings me the light of the truth that Jesus wants to manifest to His little creature. It seems to me that the more I repeat my 'I love You', the more often I thunder and lightning; and these lightnings, piercing the clouds, wound my highest Good, Jesus, who, wounded, sends me His light as herald of His little visit to His embittered daughter.

So, while I was in this state, my beloved Jesus came in a pitiful and afflicted state; His arms were broken from the grave offenses received; and throwing Himself into my arms, He asked me for help in so many pains. I was unable to resist, and while clasping Him in my arms, I felt His pains being communicated to me – but so many, as to feel myself dying; so I fell into the abyss of my painful state. Fiat!... Fiat!... But the thought of being able to relieve Jesus with my little pains gave me peace. And although Jesus had left me alone in the pains, later He came back and told me: “My daughter, true love can do nothing, nor can it suffer, if it does not share it with one who loves Me. How sweet is the company of dear ones in the pains. Their company mitigates my pains, and I feel as if they were giving life back to Me; and to feel life being given back to Me by dint of pains is the greatest love that I find in the creature; and I give her my life again in exchange. So, the love is so great, that they exchange the gift of life, one for the other. But do you know who drew Me into your arms to ask you for help in my pains? The continuous thundering of your 'I love You', which, making bolts of lightning, drew Me to come to throw Myself into your arms to ask you for relief.

Moreover, you must know that my Divine Will is Heaven, your humanity is earth. Now, as you keep doing your acts in It, you take Heaven; and the more acts you do, the more room you take in this Heaven of my Fiat; and while you take Heaven, my Will takes your earth, and Heaven and earth are fused together and remain dissolved, one within the other.”

After this, I continued my abandonment in the Divine Fiat, and blessed Jesus came back with His Heart open, from which blood was pouring; and in that Divine Heart one could see all the pains of Jesus, which He suffered in all the parts of His Divine Person, all centered in the Heart. Even more, in It was the place and the origin of all His pains which, spreading through all of His Most Holy Humanity, rose back like many rivulets into His Most Holy Heart, bringing to It the torment that His whole Divine Person suffered. And Jesus added: “My daughter, how much I suffer. Look at this Heart of Mine – how many wounds, how many sorrows, how many pains It hides. It is the refuge of all pains; there is no sorrow, nor spasm, nor offense, which does not pour into this Heart of Mine. My pains are so many, that unable to bear the bitterness, I keep looking for one who wants to accept a few little particles of these pains, to have a sigh of relief. And when I find her, I keep her so dear to Me, that I cannot leave her ever again, nor do I feel lonely any more; I have someone whom I can make comprehend my pains, to whom I can confide my secrets, and in whom I can pour my flames of love that consume Me. This is why I often ask you to accept part of my pains – because they are many; and if I don't go to my children to ask for relief, to whom should I go? I would remain like a father without children, who either has no offspring, or his ungrateful children have abandoned him. Ah! no, no, you will not abandon Me. Isn't it true, my daughter?"

After this, I followed my sweet Jesus in His pains, uniting mine to His in order to receive strength from His pains, to sustain mine, for I felt as though crushed.
